

BIO LINE
uno sguardo verso il futuro

Ricerchiamo i materiali e le tecniche di lavorazione nel cuore della tradizione italiana, non per questo però siamo meno attenti al mondo che ci circonda.
Negli ultimi anni, il forte richiamo alla responsabilità e al rispetto nei confronti del pianeta ha imposto anche alle aziende più cura verso le scelte di produzione e l'impatto ambientale che ne deriva.
Proprio per questo motivo abbiamo ideato una serie di articoli ECO-SOSTENIBILI realizzati con un materiale innovativo, prodotto utilizzando per gran parte FIBRE VEGETALI DERIVATE DAGLI SCARTI INDUSTRIALI DELLA MELA.
Bio Line è pensata per tutti coloro che cercano oggi la qualità di un prodotto in coagulato, con una particolare attenzione al pianeta di domani.

BIO LINE
a look to the future

We look for the materials and processing techniques in the heart of Italian tradition, not for this reason we are less attentive to the world around us.
During the last few years, the strong call for responsibility and respect for the planet has also imposed on companies more care towards production choices and the resulting environmental impact.
For this reason, we have thought of some eco-sustainable items made with an innovative material. It is produced using mostly VEGETABLE FIBERS DERIVED FROM INDUSTRIAL APPLE WASTE.
Bio Line is thought for people who look for a quality PU leather item today, with particular attention to the planet of tomorrow.

GENUINE LEATHER

CLASSIC STYLE
la Vera Pelle sempre di moda

Gli anni passano ma gli articoli realizzati in vera pelle restano. Si evolvono.
L'Italia in particolare vanta nel settore pellettiero una tradizione antichissima e risponde al meglio ai rigidi standard europei sia in fatto di pregio che per tutela dell'ambiente.
Anche il nostro obbiettivo da oltre 50 anni è sempre lo stesso: creare oggetti di qualità, utili, durevoli, e che siano sempre in linea con le mode attuali.
Ecco perché con il passare del tempo anche i pellami utilizzati, rigorosamente Made in Italy, si sono modificati: gli immancabili colori classici, sempre di tendenza, hanno dato più spazio anche a colori più sgargianti e vivaci.
Le diverse grane offerte inoltre offrono soluzioni diverse adatte a tutte le tipologie di clientela.

CLASSIC STYLE
Leather always fashionable

The years passed but the items made of genuine leather remain.
They have evolved.
Italy boasts an ancient tradition in the leather goods sector and responds best to the strict European standards both in terms of value and environmental protection.
Also our purpose, for over 50 years is always the same: to make items of quality, useful, durable, and that they are always in line with the current fashion.
That's why over time even the leathers used, strictly Made in Italy, have changed.
The inevitable classic colors, always trendy, have offered space for brighter and more vivid colors.
The different grains offered, also offer different solutions suitable for all types of customers.
